Upon their selection, ensembles invited to perform at the SCMEA Inservice Conference will be required to submit to the Executive Board of the Orchestra Division the titles of the works to be programmed in their SCMEA INSERVICE CONFERENCE performance. The Executive Board reserves the right to approve, to limit, to alter, and to recommend programming that reflects what it thinks is a suitably appropriate variety of works. Ensembles selected to perform must agree to this review process and its director(s) must agree to follow the wishes and the input of the Executive Board. Failure to comply will result in revocation of the invitation to perform.

In the event that no ensemble meets the performance standards of the SCMEA Orchestra Division Executive Board, the Orchestra Division reserves the right to not recommend a performing ensemble for the Inservice Conference. If no ensemble applies by the deadline, the Orchestra Division Executive Board reserves the right to invite/appoint any ensemble they deem representative of the desired standards of the SCMEA Orchestra Division.
